HARKER BROTHERS.

The Old Couple

It stands in a sunny meadow,
The house so mossy and brown,
With its cumbrous old stone chimneys,
And the gray roof sloping down.

The trees fold their green arms around it,
The trees a century old;
And the winds go chanting through them,
And the sunbeams drop their gold.

The cowslips spring in the marshes,
And the roses bloom on the hill;
And beside the brook in the pastures,
The herds go feeding at will.

The children have gone and left them,
They sit in the sun alone;
And the old wife's ears are failing
As she harks to the well known tone

That won her heart in her girlhood,
That has soothed her in many a care,
And praises her now for the brightness
Her old face used to wear.

She thinks again of her bridal—
How, dressed in her robes of white,
She stood by her gay young lover
In the morning's rosy light.

Oh the morning is rosy as ever,
But the rose on her cheek is fled;
And the sunshine still is golden,
That falls on a silvered head.

And the girlhood dreams once vanished
Come back in her winter time,
Till her feeble pulses tremble
With the thrill of spring-time prime.

And looking forth from the window,
She thinks how the trees have grown,
Since, clad in her bridal whiteness,
She crossed the old door-stone.

Though dimmed her eye's bright azure,
And dimmed her hair's young gold;
The love in her girlhood plighted
Has never grown dim nor old.

They sat in peace in the sunshine,
The day was almost done,
And then at its close an angel
Stole over the threshold stone.

He folded their hands together—
He touched their eyelids with balm,
And their last breath floated upward
Like the close of a solemn psalm.

Like a bridal pair they traversed
The unseen mystical road
That leads to the beautiful city,
"Whose builder and maker is God."

French Opinions

The Paris Journal des Debats of the 10th August, has a long article on American affairs. After giving an account of the battle of Manassas, it says:

"The question may well be asked, what will be the result of the affair to the two parties. It is not necessary for us to say that in our opinion it has changed nothing, either in the respective situations of the North and the South, or in their relations in regard to Europe. The war will continue—that is not dubious—and as for Europe, her duty is to remain neutral as heretofore. The numerous discussions of which the events in America have been the subject have had an excellent result—to throw light upon all sides of the question. It is now beyond a doubt that in right the cause of the South is untenable, and that the North cannot be reasonably reproached for wishing to defend itself against the pretensions of the partisans of slavery, for in admitting them it must acknowledge that the United States have no real existance, and that they are merely a league of independent republics. But in political matters, a purely theoretic discussion of a subject is not sufficient, and it is necessary to examine the different modes of settling it. Let us see, then, once more what are the pretensions of the two parties. The South declares that, whether right or wrong, it will not remain in submission to the Federal Government, and that it is strong enough to sustain itself, and to force the North and Europe to recognize it. If this is really so, the result they predict must sooner or later arrive. But the North contests the truth of the assertion of the South. It declares that unanimity is far from reigning among the populations of the Seceded States; that the government of Washington can count there a large number of partisans who openly declared themselves as fast as the Federal troops penetrate their territory, and that it will not be at all necessary to treat the South as a conquered country in order to insure the re-establishment of the Union. Where lies the truth between these contradictory assertions? Nobody can tell until events shall make it known, and this is why we believe that the European States have no right to interfere in the quarrel, and to pronounce for or against the pretensions of one or the other of these adversaries. We have applauded the declaration of neutrality of France and England. This neutrality should be strict and impartial, after as before the battle of Manassas. The day when the conquered North shall have signed a treaty of peace and recognized the Southern Confederacy, the question will in fact be settled. But any act which will tend to advance the pretensions of the South and to encourage this unfortunate revolution will be contrary to public right, and we trust that Europe will think twice before lending its moral aid to a State founded upon the trade in and upon the perpetual bondage of four millions of men.

Laws of the United States

Passed at the First Session of the Thirty-Seventh Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 38.]

AN ACT providing for the better organization of the military establishment.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President be and he is hereby authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, an officer in the War Department, to be called the Assistant Secretary of War, whose salary shall be three thousand dollars per annum, payable in the same manner as that of the Secretary of War, who shall perform all such duties in the office of the Secretary of War, belonging to that Department, as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of War, or as may be required by law.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That the President be and he is hereby authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, in addition to the number authorized by existing laws and in accordance with existing regulations, five assistant inspector generals, with the rank and pay of majors of cavalry, ten surgeons, and twenty assistant surgeons, to have the pay, rank, and allowances, and perform the duties of similar officers in the present military establishment. That hereafter the Adjutant General's department shall consist of the following officers, namely: One adjutant general, with the rank, pay and emoluments of a brigadier general, one assistant adjutant general, with the rank, pay, and emoluments of a colonel of cavalry, two assistant adjutant generals, with the rank, pay, and emoluments each of a lieutenant colonel of cavalry, four assistant adjutant generals, with the rank, pay, and emoluments each of a major of cavalry, and twelve assistant adjutant generals, with the rank, pay, and emoluments each of a captain of cavalry; and that there shall be added to the Subsistence department four commissaries of subsistence, each with the rank, pay, and emoluments of a major of cavalry; and eight commissaries of subsistence, with the rank, pay, and emoluments each of a captain of cavalry, and to be taken from the line of the army, either of the volunteers or regular army.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That there shall be added to each of the corps of engineers and topographical engineers three first and three second lieutenants to be promoted thereto in accordance with the existing laws and regulations. And there shall be added to the Quartermaster's department one colonel, two lieutenant colonels, four majors, and twenty captains, with the rank, pay, and allowances of officers of cavalry, and whenever any army captain of the Quartermaster's department shall have served fourteen years' continuous services he shall be promoted to the rank of major; and that there shall be added to the Quartermaster's department as many master wagoners, with the rank, pay, and allowances of sergeants of cavalry, and as many wagoners, with the pay and allowances of corporals of cavalry, as the military service, in the judgment of the President, may render necessary. And there shall be added to the ordnance department of the United States army, as now organized, one Chief of Ordnance, with the rank, pay, and emoluments of the Quartermaster General of the army, one colonel, one lieutenant colonel, and six second lieutenants; the field officers to be appointed by selection from the officers of the army, and the second lieutenants from the graduates of the United States Military Academy, by transfers from the engineers, or the topographical engineers, or the artillery.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That there shall be added to the corps of engineers three companies of engineer soldiers, to be commanded by appropriate officers of said corps, to have the same pay and rations, clothing, and other allowances, and be entitled to the same benefits, in every respect, as the company created by the act for the organization of a company of sappers and miners and pontoniers, approved May sixteen, eighteen hundred and forty six. The said three companies shall be subject to the rules and articles of war, shall be recruited in the same manner and with the same limitation, shall be instructed in and perform the same duties, and be liable to serve in the same way, and shall have their vehicles, pontons, tools, implements, arms, and other supplies, regulated in the same manner as the existing engineer company; and each of the four companies of engineer soldiers shall hereafter be composed of ten sergeants, ten corporals, two musicians, sixty-four privates of the first class, or artificers, and sixty-four privates of the second class, in all one hundred and fifty men each.

A backwoods clergyman having alluded to an anchor in his discourse, described its use in the following lucid manner: "An anchor is a large iron instrument that sailors carry to sea with them, and when a storm arises, they take it on shore and fasten it to a tree, and that holds the ship till the storm is over."

ready to invoke God to stay the efforts of the Government to sustain itself; in other words, he is ready to ask Him to interpose His power and paralyze our arms, cause the defeat of our armies, and thus enable the Confederate forces to overrun the country, and put an end to the Government and the Union. Is not this treason? Would not a man who would say and do this trample under his feet the flag of the country, and gloat over the destruction of our Government?

The quotation contains also a base falsehood, and, as said by the Puget Sound Herald in an another case, was known to be a falsehood when published—that "Lincoln inaugurated this war."

Before the fall of Sumter, as early as the 6th of March last, the "Southern Congress," sitting at Montgomery, authorized Gen. Jeff. Davis, as President of the Confederated States, to raise a military force of 100,000 men. Mr. Walker, the Confederate Secretary of War, recognizing the intention of the South to make war, and on the eve of the fall of Sumter, made this declaration—"No man could tell where the war this day commenced would end, but he would prophecy that the flag which now flaunts the breeze here would float over the dome of the old Capitol at Washington before the first of May. Let them try Southern chivalry, and test the strength of Southern resources, and it might float eventually over Faneuil Hall itself."

It was not until the 15th of April, and after the war had been "commenced," as thus stated by Secretary Walker, that Mr. Lincoln issued his call for 75,000 volunteers.—These facts are known to Gov. Curry, as they are known to the whole nation, and the charge made by him that "Lincoln inaugurate this war," we repeat is a basely wicked falsehood.

Let not the people be deceived. The assailants of this Government seek peace by its destruction. They will pray for it; and if opportunity offers, they will fight for it. The labors of the editors of the Advertiser, and of some other papers in this State, are on the side of the rebels. They are the most excellent aids of traitors. Is there any more reason that they shall be sustained in a community they labor day by day to ruin, than a company should be allowed to recruit and drill here for the Southern army? Oregon this day would make an excellent bargain if she could organize into a corporal's guard every Secession editor, and send it fully equipped into Jeff. Davis' service.

The freedom of the press is one thing.—The open or covert support of the cause of the enemy is another; and should be permitted under no such specious plea as is put forth. Four papers in this State are doing their best to secure the success of a rebellion that would destroy the constitution and they seek to take refuge under one clause of that instrument. It is about time that that should cease. Its ill effects are already apparent.—You, people of Oregon, keep alive these allies of treason. You can compel them either to support the government, or cease to aid the rebellion of Jeff Davis. It is no less a duty to leave these rebel newspapers without support, than it would be to leave a rebel battery, planted among us, without ammunition.

It is said that the Pony Express will stop when the telegraph line through to the States is completed.

the Union motto on it. Lancaster's name was on the back of the ticket.'

Other persons have knowledge of the fact. I myself went on the 17th inst., to the ballot box, and found the ticket with the Union motto wholly torn off, on the back of which were these words, "I vote this ticket. C. Lancaster.

C. I. FAIRCHILD.

Sept. 19th, 1861.

The evidence here presented effectually invalidates the statement of Mr. Caples. In fact, Mr. Caples does not say, that Columbia Lancaster did not tear off the head of his ticket. He only "thinks" so. We are willing here to rest our case. The effort of Columbia Lancaster to produce the impression that he is not a secessionist, is something in his favor.

"While the lamp holds out to burn,
The vilest sinner may return."

FROM THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.—The bark Comet, arrived at San Francisco, on the 29th, 20 days from Honolulu. She brings the commercial Advertiser of that city to the 7th ult.

The population of Honolulu is ascertained to be upwards of 14,000, of which some 2,000 are foreign born.

Recent exploration on Malden's Island has revealed the ruins of houses, old wells and tombs, belonging to a gone out people. The houses had been built in the shape of a cross, and had been constructed of coral slabs, with walks running to the beach and paved with the same material. The graves contained trinkets, generally necklaces, of the sort worn by Catholics long ago. It is believed that this was the stopping place of Spanish buccaneers who cruised from South America to the Manillas, three centuries ago.

In anticipation of a rise in the price of rice and coffee, the Islanders are turning their attentions to the cultivation of those commodities. An improved cotton gin is on the way from Boston.

Items of News.

Some more of the Advertiser's friends are gone. The "Visalia Delta," of California, says that Judge Terry, and Dan Showalter, have left with 275 men for Texas. They go by the way of the Tejon Pass.

The New York Journal of Commerce promises to support every lawful measure for the suppression of the Southern rebellion—yet copies articles showing its sympathy with the rebels. The Portland Advertiser does the same thing.

On Tuesday and Tuesday evening, we had some small specimens of thunder. They were very fair for the first attempt of the season.

The Paris Siecle of Aug. 12, says: "It is very plain, that for France, the commercial and maritime power of the United States, is the necessary counterforce to that of England!" On this ground, and to secure this object, France is not likely to interfere in behalf of the Southern rebels.

It is said that the Legislature of Washington Territory, at their next session will make provision for the appointment of suitable persons to act as pilots in the Straits of Fuca.

The biggest story yet; the Victoria Colonist publishes a statement, that three miners the present season, on Cariboo, collected fifteen hundred pounds of gold ($300,000 worth.) The editor don't vouch for its correctness.

A young man came into our office yesterday and said he was going down to California, on the steamer, to volunteer. He said there seemed to be no effort to get up the company called for in Oregon.

to barbarous and brutal communities. It is plain, then, that the language of that amendment imports no more than that every man has a right to speak, write or print his opinions upon any subject whatever, without any prior restraint, so, always, that he does not injure any other person in his rights, person, property or reputation, and so always that he does not thereby disturb the public peace or attempt to subvert the government."

No editor has a right, then, to publish such matter as to "stir up treason, sedition, and rebellion against the Government." The charge is that the course of the Advertiser is in that direction. Judge Deady very candidly expresses his opinion that, with the exception of some provisions, the "Alien and Sedition Law of John Adams," should not have been repealed. Had that law remained in existence, the Portland Advertiser would long since have ceased to outrage the Union sentiment of the country.

News from all Quarters.

HATTERAS INLET PRISONERS.—The prisoners taken at Hatteras Inlet, have been put ashore from the Minnesota, at New York. They were said to be a miserable looking set of beings—features pinched, squalid and intolerably filthy. They said they had suffered much from hunger, and their features proves the fact. These late fire-eaters were chop-fallen enough. Some of them wanted to swear allegiance to the Government, and be turned loose. This was emphatically refused.

COMMODORE BARRON.—This man commanded the Minnesota two years ago. He deserted his flag, went South, was put in command of the forts at Hatteras Inlet, and while there, gave orders for the extinguishment of the lights on Cape Hatteras, thus setting a trap for the luring of perhaps hundreds of our merchantmen to shipwreck and their crews to an awful death. The halter could not be placed on a neck more worthy the ornament.

ISLIP.—There is a nest of Secessionists at Islip, Long Island. They objected to the raising of a flag on their Church. One was placed on it, however, and they were informed that if it was taken down the building would be likely to come down with it. The flag remains floating.

NEW ORLEANS.—The people of New Orleans are expecting an attack from a federal fleet. They have been led to believe that the motto of the Government forces is "beauty and booty." Business is entirely prostrated—gloom broods over this former seat of commerce. The collection of rents, debts, and taxes, is abandoned. A few men have some money left, which they contribute to the support of Northern Secession journals.

NEW JERSEY.—An organization of members of the Golden Circle was lately discovered. They had arms, and were subjected to drill. These arms were seized as well as their owners, who were glad to take the oath of allegiance to save their necks. Secessionists in New Jersey and other Northern States, are now being crushed out with a strong band.

TORIES.—There are tories always in all countries. We had them in the Revolution. They were scattered about in the most loyal States. We have tories now. They can be found in all the Northern States. We have them in Oregon. When they became troublesome to the country in the Revolution, they were taken care of; and such will be the case at the present day.

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

PRESENT TO MR. LINCOLN.—Mr. Jackson, an old soldier of the war of 1812, now seventy-three years old, manufactured of Oregon maple a magnificent Rocking Chair, which was purchased by James Guthrie, Jr., and D. Logan, for the purpose of being forwarded to "Old Abe."

The schooner Ella Florence, Capt. Freeman, from San Quentin, California, is in the river, loaded with two hundred and fifteen tons salt. She was expected here last evening.

UNABLE TO CROSS THE BAR.—We learn that the steamer Pacific could not cross the Columbia Bar until Monday morning, on account of heavy fogs.

MORE EMIGRANTS.—Another party of emigrants arrived from the Dalles, on the steamer Julia, on Monday night.

BRISK.—Quite a number of teams were in our city, yesterday, loaded with apples. Dealers are paying from fifty to sixty cents per bushel.

MORE WHARVES.—Piles are now being driven in front of the property lately purchased by the Columbia River Steam Navigation Company, for the purpose of erecting a wharf.

NEARLY COMPLETED.—The Willamette No. 1 Engine House is nearly finished. In a few days it will be ready for the reception of their engines. The house will be an ornament to the city, when completed.

By Last Night's Stage.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—Gen. Sumner received orders by this Pony to have the regular troops in this Department ready to start for the East at short notice. The regulars consist of three regiments of infantry, one regiment of cavalry, and one regiment of artillery. Four companies of regular artillery will remain at this port. The forts and military posts on the Pacific coast will be garrisoned by the volunteers. Generals Sumner and Halleck will, it is believed, be ordered east with the troops.

Dr. Scott and family took passage to-day on the Uncle Sam for Panama, where they will take the Southampton steamer.

SUICIDE.—A man by the name of John Fisher, shot himself one day last week, in Linn County. He resided in Benton County.

The Yreka Journal—in view of the disposition of the miners in its neighborhood, to go to the Nez Perce mines—says that they had better wait till spring. The Journal is right.

Queen Victoria, at the last dates, was visiting her Irish subjects, and met a very enthusiastic reception at Dublin.

NORTH CAROLINA.—The news from North Carolina, since the capture of Hatteras Inlet, shows that the Union spirit there has burst into a flame, and that it needs only a respectable Federal force in the State to bring North Carolina back into the Union.

Swett's Grape Bitters, or Restorative Wine, manufactured under the supervision of Mrs. A. M. Swett, the celebrated Clairvoyant Physician, and prepared from roots and herbs of great medicinal virtue, combined with the pure juice of the California Grape—a certain remedy for Liver Complaint, Debility, Biliousness, Costiveness, Dyspepsia, Impaired Appetite, Impure Breath, &c., and all diseases requiring a powerful Liver Invigorator and Tonic. Warranted the best remedy ever invented for diseases peculiar to females, such as Leucorrhea or Whites, Weaknesses, &c. Sold by all Druggists and by DANIEL SWETT, Proprietor, 53½ California street, San Francisco. aug26-6m

The Medical and Surgical Institute of DR. L. J. CZAPKAY is already secured in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of Europe, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners in this department of medical science, and they occupy, with others, an equally lofty position in the profession. Ricord's [illegible] a shining light among the philosophers of the age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has fully equaled him in this country; as a proof of which the Philadelphia College of Medicine complimented him with a Diploma, and the honorary [illegible] degree. Selecting this as his field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors, Dr. L. J. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great an expert that he is now regarded as the [illegible] in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The Doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on Sacramento street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the sworn certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in corresponding, please enclose $10 in their letters, and they will get immediate attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. june28dawly

Legal Notice.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Multnomah County. A. M. A. Blanchet, Complainant, vs. Oswald Travaillot, Defendant. In Chancery.

TO OSWALD TRAVAILLOT, Defendant: You are hereby notified that A. M. A. Blanchet has this day filed in my office his bill of complaint and commenced a suit against you, in which he claims that on the tenth day of June, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty seven, you made and delivered to him a certain promissory note for the sum of six hundred dollars, payable ten months after date, with interest at the rate of two per cent. per month, and that at the same time made, acknowledged and delivered a certain mortgage deed upon lots numbered three (3) [illegible] block number three, in Couch's addition to the City of Portland, in the county of [illegible] as security for the payment of said note, and complainant prays for a decree of foreclosure and for the sale of the said mortgaged premises to pay the amount due upon said mortgage, now [illegible] the sum of six hundred dollars and interest as aforesaid since the twentieth of September, A. D. eighteen hundred and fifty-nine, and for a judgment against you for any balance which may remain unpaid after the application of the proceeds of the sale of said property for the payment of said debt; and you are further notified that unless you appear in the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah on the second Monday of November, A. D. 1861, and then and there answer the said bill of complaint, the same will be taken as confessed and the prayer thereof will be granted by the Court.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of this Court this 12th day of August A. D. 1861.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S
Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY

Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary; the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.

Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise FREE.

Address [illegible] L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases the first great cause

Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. [illegible] cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case [illegible] a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted who may place themselves under my care a speedy and permanent cure. This disease is the greatest enemy to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. As a permanent cure is scarcely ever effected, a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself.
